Alex first picked up a golf club aged 4, and has been passionate about the game ever since. He has represented the club at the highest amateur level playing for the junior and men's first team

He joined the Proshop team in 2015, and shortly after turned professional to follow in his father's footsteps and embark upon a career in coaching golf.

Currently undertaking his PGA foundation degree, Alex is passionate about coaching, custom fitting and is involved with the very popular Junior Academy. He is looking forward to further enhancing his coaching skills and building a good reputation as a PGA professional
